

6516206349.txt

There should be no restrictions placed on XM for this issue. People will still have the choice between public broadcast and services that are payed for. Furthermore if I have to pay for a service I would expect to have more options and better service than that of free service.